According to national forest policy forest cover should be 33 of the total land but in India it is nearly about 24. Tree plantation and conservation is the best solution to fight against the global warming to achieve the goal, our institute initiated this activity from last five years plans have important role in Climate change. Many efforts have been taken by Government of Maharashtra through social forest department, some NGOs and all educational institutes through NSS. And college staff.

The Practice-

We have selected one acre of barren land adjacent to the college campus. First we built fencing wall for protection and clean the area then under the guidance of principal, our college students dug 80 pits for tree plantation at certain distance of suitable size. We brought human soil and manure. For plantation we brought sapling of trees of Neem, Pipal, Gulmohar, Amla, guava, mango, ashoka, Pama etc. Tree plantation program was organized on in presence of college Management council, staff, and students. For protection and care taker Mr. Warpe Santosh was appointed by principal.

Evidences of success:

All the sapling trees were grown and survived successfully and attained average height of 6 feet's. The entire land of this area is covered by herbs, shrubs and bushes. Increased biodiversity was observed. Our students are taking efforts for survival of plants mostly Mr. Warpe Santosh is care taking more efforts by regular watering the plants and regular care vigilance of plants.
